General Information

Phoenix Workforce Connection and Phoenix College is offering a great opportunity for individuals to learn Building Information Modeling (BIM) REVIT Architecture software! REVIT is the next generation in CAD based design and drafting in the Commercial, Residential, and Industrial Construction Industries. Individuals with CAD experience are preferred; however, it is not required. Architects, Drafters, Interior Designers, Project Managers, Engineers, and/or Construction Personnel are ideal individuals for this opportunity. Those selected to participate will be provided a 13-month-trial version of the REVIT Architecture software.

General Requirements

- Be an employed, underemployed, or unemployed worker in the construction industry.
- Previous CAD experience is not required; however, experience in Architectural Design, Drafting, or Engineering is recommended.
- Priority will be given to Veterans, laid-off workers in the construction industry, and those who live/work within the city of Phoenix.
- Knowledge of Microsoft Windows XP, 2000, or NT.
- Must be available to attend class each Saturday in January and February.
