ART WORKSHOP SEMINAR (Art 295 AA)
Ireland

ART295AA  19926-99999  L+L 1 Credit  2 Periods

Art Workshop/Seminar:  Drawing
Advanced level workshop/seminar in art disciplines.  Prerequisites:  Minimum of three (3) credits introductory and three (3) credits intermediate level courses in specific field, or permission of Department/Division Chair.

Instructor:  Roman Reyes
Phone:  Art Department 285-7281

COURSE PURPOSE:
The major purpose of the Art Workshop Seminar is to provide advanced students with the opportunity to produce drawings demonstrating advanced creative and technical competencies.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
Students will work individually with the instructor to determine specific objectives for meeting their personal and professional goals.  Each student will be required to maintain a weekly sketchbook/diary.

COMPETENCIES:

1) Utilize tools and techniques significant to a particular discipline.
2) Review current methodologies and practices.
3) Define terms and definitions specific to a field of interest.
4) Demonstrate participatory skills in a workshop activity through group dynamics and dialog.
5) Identify problem-solving skills in technical and aesthetic aspects of the disciplines.

OUTLINE:

I. Format
   A. Tools and techniques
   B. Current methodologies
   C. Terms and definitions

II. Critical Inquiry
   A. Group critique
   B. Problem solving specific to discipline

EVALUATION:
Evaluation is based on participation and qualitative attainment of objectives.

GENERAL SUPPLIES:

- variety of papers
- colored pencils
- erasers
- small sketchbook
- pencil sharpener
- rulers